BRONSVILLE MUST BE A THE FAIR.

The work of preparing an exhibit of Brownsville country products for the Sau Autonio fair is now under way. It is the duty of everyone interested in this section who has or can procure anything that would add to the value of this exhibit to send it to Secretary Bannon of the Business Men's Club, who is attending to the matter. There is no doubt that such an exhibit will do a great deal of good towards advertising this section As may be seen by the letter from Mr. Donerty on the subject, which was published in Thursday's Herald, other places along the Brownsville railroad will be represented at the fair, and it would never do for Brownsville to fall behind in this important matter. Let our people put their best foot forward and see that Mr. Bannon receives all of the encouragement and assistance possible in this undertak-

It need hardly be said that the local club will readily adopt the friendly suggestion, and extend a cordial invita tion to Mr. Ransdell to speak here also. As a prominent member of the rivers and harbors committee, Mr. Ransdell should be able to speak with more than ordinary ability on this subject, and, on the other hand, his position should make him a power in behalf of the coast canal project if he can be interested in it.

> ONE of the large news firms of St. Louis has ordered all of its stands to cut out all cheap literature having a tendency to make criminals, such as the Jesse James, Younger Brothers, and like stories. All of this class of books have been called in by the news firm referred to, and their sale will be discontinued on all trains having contracts with these dealers. This is an encouraging indication of a consideration of morality being allowed precedence over the consideration of money making. If other book and news sellers all over this land of liberty should undergo a like conversion, the effect upon the rising generation dress precisely alike. They wear might be seen in a lessening number of bank defaulters, forgers tight breeches, wrinkled leather and other criminals.
